Dear Andre:

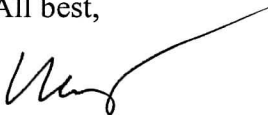

Janet Pack and I would like to invite you to contribute a story to an anthology entitled Fairy Tails (working title), to be published by Daw Books in the year 2004.

Every cat owner knows their favorite felines are mysterious, long associated in history and fable with the occult, the strange, the fascinating. Any situation touched by a feline paw becomes more interesting because of their intrinsic "catitudes". What really happened to Puss n' Boots after he brought his partner fame and wealth? Was it really Cinderella's fairy godmother that assisted her, or was her cat responsible for her success? Did Rapunzel's cat lead the prince to her lonely tower? These stories will tell of our feline friends er, "assistance" in making sure that everyone lived "happily ever after."

We're looking for fantasy fairy tales involving cats of all types from 4,000 - 6,000 words in length. They should come to me at the above address and need to arrive by April 1st, 2002. Payment is $0.06/word against our standard share of fifty percent of future earnings (the fifty percent share allocated to contributors will be distributed in proportion to the number of stories in the book).

Please use the enclosed post card for your reply. We're looking forward to seeing you in the book.

All best,

Martin H. Greenberg
